

City of Bothell™

PROCLAMATION

Eddie Low Appreciation

WHEREAS, Eddie Low joined the City of Bothell as a Civil Engineer on July 8, 1985, when the City's population was under 10,000 people; and

WHEREAS, Eddie has honorably served the citizens of Bothell for over 37 years during which time the population has increased to 45,000; and

WHEREAS, Eddie has distinguished himself throughout his career through the quality of his work, the breadth and depth of his knowledge, and the respect he has earned from his colleagues, managers, elected officials, funding partners, and members of the public; and

WHEREAS, Eddie's dedication, positive influence, high level of customer service, thorough staff work, and quality projects have made a significant contribution to the Bothell community; and

WHEREAS, Eddie has been a friend and mentor to his colleagues, encouraging their own professional growth; and

WHEREAS, Eddie was a major contributor to the Bothell community as it exists today by directing the planning, design, and construction of the City's infrastructure; and

WHEREAS, Eddie is known for securing funding for City projects from a variety of sources throughout his career, including $48.8 million in 2022 alone; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate Eddie's invaluable contributions of service and friendship; and

WHEREAS, we wish Eddie all the best as he retires from the City and enjoys the next chapter of his life.

NOW, THEREFORE I, Mason Thompson, Mayor of the City of Bothell, do hereby proclaim the City of Bothell's appreciation to Eddie Low for his many contributions to the City of Bothell and our greater community.

Signed this 28th Day of February, 2023

Mason Thompson, Mayor

